

AS TO THE THIRD PARTY.
Editor Register:—One of your patrons writes to answer an article that recently appeared in the columns of your paper, and from the Woodstock Standard, dated thus: "The crab-like party. The old, the prohibition party, progress toward, which is the right thing for it. It has no excuse for existence except it is to help the Democratic party in localities where the two great parties are evenly balanced. And it casts votes than it did two years ago." The saying is that a lie will travel and the world while truth is putting boots on. But this lie printed in the Standard will not travel worth a cent, in the hoodlum end of the Republican party, and that must be over in a week. Mr. Editor, you know that truth never gains anything except temporary advantage. Truth, though shed to earth, will rise again. If the party is progressing backward, it is on the same principle the boys are going to school. Two boys who are a little late in coming to school were reproached by their teacher thus: "Why, what makes you late?" Their reply was, "Every step we took toward school-house, it was so slippery that slipped back two steps." "Well," the teacher, "how did you ever happen to get here in that way?" "Why," the boys, "we saw how the thing was going, so we turned and went the way we succeeded in getting here near on time."

Now to save the Standard from any worry, I will notify them now the third party will be in precisely the same position. The light odium poured on them by the Standard will neither retard or accelerate their progress one iota. As well at General Grant and his whole army held at bay by a bumble-bee's nest, as our Standard to suppress the irrepressible conflict that has been commenced by the third party for the overthrow of "King Alcohol."

The Standard says less votes this year two years ago. Let us see, Col. A. set up two years ago by the Independent Republicans, voted for by them the Prohibitionists, received in all ten hundred votes and a fraction and that in a Presidential year, that lost a full vote. This year, Prof. A. set up by the third party, received eighteen hundred votes, a gain of one hundred votes, while both of other parties fell off their vote.

Nowhere has the third party been so successful. In Maine, they doubled two years ago. Still I would not moralize towards to come into the party now, as we expect to meet some Bull Run disasters. But we keep sweet amidst all the imprecations and expressions of disrespect that are heaped on us by grumblers, for we are the salvation army sings, "The victory is coming by and by." And it does come the party or parties named in the Standard and all the cowards in the universe, together with all the brave men and heroic women will send up one round anthem of praise to Him who endowed a little hand with courage to drop the leaf-prohibition into national politics.

ST. JOHN VS. WIGGINS.
[From the Boston Herald.]
Ex-Gov. St. John predicts that the Republican party would carry ten States in 1888, that it will then turn its toes up to the daisies, and that, in 1892, the Prohibition will give the mossback Bourbon Democracy the worst licking it ever had. That's a pretty long horseshoe to cast. It takes the shine right off of Wiggins.

THE GOVERNOR'S STAFF.

THEODORE S. PECK,
Adjutant and Inspector-General.

OBITUARY.
ISAAC O. CHURCHILL.
Isaac O. Churchill died at the residence of J. C. Caswell in Hartland, Oct. 1, aged 71 years and six months. His funeral was attended in the place where he died on the following Sunday, Oct. 3, Rev. Mr. Tillotson of the Universalist church at Woodstock officiating. There was a large gathering of friends and neighbors at the funeral. The body reposed in an elegant velvet casket, and was buried in the cemetery at Taftsville. Mr. Churchill's last sickness was long and painful, but he was not heard to murmur or complain. His belief that God will save all his children was strong till the last. He was kindly cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Caswell through all his sickness and faithfully attended. Dr. Logan of Woodstock was in daily attendance for nearly nine months and all was done that could be done to prolong his life and make him comfortable while he lived. He was a long resident of Addison county, where he was well known, as well as in this vicinity where he spent his later years and his last.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 30, 1886.
Neurotic Oil Co., Gentlemen:—Have been troubled with a weak knee for years; injured same badly a few days ago, which at once caused me much suffering. Made two applications of Neurotic Oil, and was entirely relieved from pain, two more and swelling entirely gone. Hope others may try the remedy and receive like benefits, for surely there is virtue in it.

Respectfully yours,
42m2 T. S. PECK.

LEGISLATURE OF VERMONT.
THURSDAY, OCT. 7, 1886.
In the Senate little was done beyond the announcement of the standing committees of that body, the chairmen of which are: Rules, Mr. Bates; finance, Mr. Foster; judiciary, Mr. Baker; claims, Mr. Nash; education, Mr. Barker; agriculture, Mr. Clayton; manufactures, Mr. Smith; elections, Mr. Powell; military affairs, Mr. Vinton; railroads, Mr. Stoddard; highways and bridges, Mr. Chapin; banks, Mr. Wells; land taxes, Mr. Wright; printing, Mr. Sewall; general committee, Mr. Clark; federal relations, Mr. Hall; state prison, Mr. Cushing; insane asylum, Mr. Stanley; grand list, Mr. Bailey. It will be seen that each of the additional county seats is chairman of a committee. Mr. Nash is also on the railroad committee and Mr. Stanley on the general committee. At 10 o'clock a committee of three senators appointed to inform Hon. Levi K. Fuller of his election as lieutenant-governor and conduct him to the bar of the Senate to receive the oath of office. The lieutenant-governor, escorted by the committee, appeared at the bar and received the oath of office, and on taking the chair briefly addressed the Senate.

In the House among the measures introduced were two amending the law as to trustee process, the first, by Mr. Knapp of Middlebury, changing the limit to $10, and the other, by Mr. Marsh of Woodstock, raising the limit to $40. The speaker then called the roll, and appointed Edward Dana of Rutland and George M. Powers of Morrisville assistant clerks, and that the speaker had appointed as official reporters of the House John H. Mims of St. Albans and Eugene E. Howe of Ludlow. At 11 o'clock a joint assembly was held. Governor-elect Charles F. Branch, with Hon. C. W. Porter, ex-officio clerk.

On motion of Mr. Poland of Waterville, a committee of one senator and two representatives was appointed to wait upon the retiring executive, Governor Pingree. The committee retired and soon returned to the House with his excellency the governor, who was introduced by the presiding officer, and then delivered his message.

FRIDAY, OCT. 8.
Lieut. Gov. Fuller announced in the Senate that he had appointed Karl S. Kinsley of Burlington official reporter. Mr. Baker of Rutland introduced an act relating to the supreme and county courts. The Senate adjourned to Monday afternoon.

The House adopted resolutions providing for the printing of 1000 each of the messages of the retiring and incoming governors; for the appointment of a revision committee to whom bills of public nature shall be referred for revision previous to their final passage. One or two unimportant bills were introduced, and the House adjourned to Monday afternoon.

MONDAY, OCT. 11.
The only bill of consequence introduced in the Senate was by Mr. Hale of Keese, amending the highway law of 1884 so as to provide that the selectmen of each town shall annually assess a tax upon the polls of the male grand list the proceeds to be used for the repair of highways and bridges.

The House did nothing of general interest.

TUESDAY, OCT. 12.
In the Senate Mr. Bailey of Orange introduced a bill amending sec. 25 of the revised laws and providing that the polls of the male inhabitants of the State, citizens and aliens over twenty-one and under sixty years of age, shall be set in the town list at $2 each, excepting persons who are actually engaged in military or naval service, or persons who were disabled in the war of the rebellion. A joint resolution was adopted, that so much of the message of Governor Pingree and of Governor Ormsbee as relates to the Bennington battle monument be referred to a joint special committee to consist of two senators and five representatives, to be appointed by the president of the Senate and speaker of the House of Representatives respectively. The committee was directed to report on the part of the Senate a committee to canvass votes for county and probate officers and justices of the peace with Mr. Stanley of Addison county chairman also committee to canvass votes for members of Congress. Mr. Nash being chairman of that for this district.

The speaker of the House announced the committees. The chairmen are: Federal relations, Mr. Moody of Waterville; ways and means, Mr. Deard of St. Albans; military affairs, Mr. Bailey of Orange; judiciary, Mr. Poland of Waterville; education, Mr. Simonds of Manchester; claims, Mr. Fletcher of St. Johnsbury; railroads, Mr. Nash; highways and bridges, Mr. Fletcher of St. Johnsbury; manufactures, Mr. Barker of Swanton; agriculture, Mr. Tinkham of Montpelier; land taxes, Mr. Cutler of Searsburg; grand list, Mr. Butler of Essex; general committee, Mr. Stanley of Addison; distribution committee, Mr. Oker of Athens; state prison, Mr. Tuxbury of Windsor; corporations, Mr. Knapp of Middlebury; town taxes, Mr. Roy; roads of Abundant; public buildings, Mr. Bridges of Brandon; insane, Mr. Chesmore of Huntington; military, Mr. Bradley of Brandon; the joint standing committee on library, Mr. Allen of West Haven of that on the House of correction and Mr. Hopkins of Vergennes of that on the Reformers. The Addison county members of the joint committee to canvass votes for member of Congress are: Messrs. Flint of Hinesburg, Goshen and Ketchum of Whiting; and of the committee to canvass votes for county and probate officers, Messrs. Bates, Morgan of Lincoln, Parleton of Starksboro and Dean of Monkton. Addison county members are on other committees as follows: Mr. Knapp, judiciary; Kingsley of Salisbury, education; Lane of Cornwall, claims; Burwell of Bridport, highways; Allen of Ferrisburgh, banks; Patterson of Bridport, manufactures; Barton of Waltham, agriculture; Ketchum of Whiting, land taxes; London of New Haven, grand list; Stickney of Shoreham, general committee. Flint of Hancock, highways and bridges; Smith of Addison, state prison; Bartlett of Weybridge, corporations; Capron of Leicester, detentions; Hoyt of Putnam, public buildings. Mr. Harvey of Topsham introduced an amendment to the insurance laws; Mr. Higgins of Charlotte, act to regulate a board of railroad commissioners. Mr. Williams of Roomfield submitted a joint resolution, that the speaker appoint a special committee of seven members, to whom shall be referred all matters pertaining to temperance and intemperance.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 13.
In the Senate it was voted that a United States Senator to succeed Mr. Edmunds be elected on Tuesday next at 2:30 p.m. Mr. Barker of Rutland introduced a bill providing that any person confined in jail, the house of correction or state prison for intoxication, or any act committed while intoxicated, his wife, in her own name, or if such person has no wife his minor child, may recover from the person who by himself, clerk, servant or agent illegally sold or gave away any part of the liquor upon which the person became intoxicated the sum of $2 a day for all the time that such person may be confined, to be recovered at the cost of such person.

In the House bills were introduced providing for the division of the town of Rutland; for a state board of agriculture; and for three persons to be appointed by the governor, one to be a representative of the employers, one from some labor organization and the third to be appointed on recommendation of the first two, but if they cannot agree, the governor is to appoint the third at his own instance; for compelling corporations to pay employees weekly; to change the time of freemen's meetings.
